SCHOOL OF BUDDHIST STUDIES, PHILOSOPHY & COMPARATIVE RELIGIONS

The School of Buddhist Studies, Philosophy & Comparative Religions has been functioning since 2016-17 and growing academically and logistically. It offers two Masters programs, namely – MA in Buddhist Studies, Philosophy & Comparative Religions and MA in Hindu Studies (Sanātana Dharma), along with the Global PhD program. These programs consist of a composite curriculum consisting of a History of Hindu and Buddhist traditions, a text-based study of different philosophical systems of India and a Comparative Study of Religions. The School also offers separate training in classical languages such as Pali, Sanskrit, and Tibetan to facilitate the reading of the primary Hindu and Buddhist texts. The skills imparted to students extend from rigorous reading of literary and philosophical texts to archaeological training.
